Consultant Partner Agreement: For Profit Amendment

Text of October 25, 2026. Ready for signature. Replaces the text Steve approved on October 23, 2026, 6:53 AM, which nobody signed. It adds item (d) to section 1, so the no-clone restriction (the definition of Competing Product) also covers software for businesses, as Steve decided on October 25, 2026. Nothing else changed. Steve waived review by counsel for the October 23 text; counsel has not read this one either.

Steve decided on October 23, 2026 to open the Consultant Partner Program to All In One For Profit clients on the same commission terms, by a short amendment rather than a new agreement. This amendment does that, and makes the no-clone restriction cover business software, and changes nothing else.

This amendment (the "For Profit Amendment") is made between A Step Ahead Media, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Company", "we", "us"), and the Partner named below ("Partner", "you"). It amends the Consultant Partner Agreement between the same parties (the "Agreement"), and takes effect on the date of the last signature below. Capitalized terms not defined here have the meanings the Agreement gives them.

1. The Platform includes All In One For Profit

The Company also does business as All In One For Profit, a version of the Platform for businesses, sold at https://www.allinoneforprofit.com/ on the plans AIOFP Essentials and AIOFP Complete. In the Agreement:

(a) "Platform" includes All In One For Profit;

(b) "Client Organization" includes a business that holds its own subscription to All In One For Profit and has granted you access to its account;

(c) "Client Data" includes, for such a business, information about its customers and clients, invoices, payments, projects, employees and contractors, in addition to the categories the Agreement already lists; and

(d) in the definition of "Competing Product", the words "nonprofit or membership organizations" read "nonprofit, membership or business organizations".

2. Same commission, same rules

Section 9 applies to a Client Organization on All In One For Profit exactly as it applies to one on All In One Nonprofit. In particular, you are paid twenty five percent of Collected Subscription Revenue under section 9.1, for so long as you hold the Consultant of Record seat, and sections 9.2 and 9.5 through 9.14 apply unchanged. All In One For Profit has no Launch Plan, so sections 9.3 and 9.4 have nothing to apply to there.

3. How you become Partner of Record for a business

You are recorded as Partner of Record for a business on All In One For Profit when either of these happens first:

(a) the business first subscribes to a paid plan after arriving through your referral link, the address the Company issues to you, which the Company records automatically; or

(b) you tell the Company in writing that you introduced the business, before or at the time it first subscribes, and the Company records it.

The first Partner recorded for a business is its Partner of Record. The Company does not record a Partner of Record for a business that has held a paid subscription for more than sixty days. A record changes afterward only as section 9.7 provides or to correct an error, and the Company will tell you if a record naming you changes.

4. Everything else is unchanged

Except as this amendment says, the Agreement is unchanged and continues in full force. Where this amendment and the Agreement conflict about a Client Organization on All In One For Profit, this amendment controls.
